GURREY LEAVES POSITION WITH UNDERWRITERS

Resigns After 17 Years' Service With Board; F. A. Bechert May Fill Vacancy

A. R. Gurrey, for the last 17 years secretary of the Board of Fire Underwriters, has resigned, his resignation, it is understood, to take effect on January 20, at which time the next meeting of the board will be held.

"Yes, I have resigned," Mr. Gurrey said today. "But I may continue in the employment of the board in some outside capacity. The board wants me still to keep in touch with the work, as matters may arise in which I may be of use."

Asked the reason for his resignation, Mr. Gurrey added that he is "all worn out."

Mr. Gurrey is held to be one of the best adjusters on the Pacific coast and in Hawaii. His service with the local board has been both a long and profitable one.

While nothing definite could be learned today, it is understood that Frank A. Bechert, who has been Mr. Gurrey's assistant for several years, is being considered to fill the vacancy. This, however, will probably be decided at the meeting on January 20.

FIND OVERBAY IS GUILTY OF EMBEZZLEMENT
The case of James J. Overbay, former conductor on the Rapid Transit, which went from the police court to circuit court and thence to the supreme court, and back again, was brought to a close, at least temporarily, in Circuit Judge Ashford's court today. After deliberating about four minutes, a jury found Overbay guilty of embezzlement.

It has been several months since the Overbay case first made its appearance in police court where, after a few continuances and a brief trial, the defendant was found guilty and sentenced to serve six months in jail and pay the costs. Overbay appealed. From circuit court the case went to the supreme court on reserved questions, only to be handed back to the lower tribunal for trial.

Overbay acted as his own attorney during the trial today, but asked only a few questions. At the close of the case he addressed a few remarks to the jury. Upon the suggestion of the court, Overbay noted an exception to the verdict of the jury, and moved for a new trial. His bail was increased to $500 and he was given until 4 o'clock this afternoon to raise the money. He is scheduled to be sentenced at 9 o'clock next Saturday morning.

PRIVATE JOHN S. FRENCH DIES OF BATTLE WOUNDS

News of the death of Pvt. John Scott French of Honolulu, from wounds received in battle, has reached here from his mother in Scotland. Pvt. French died on November 17, 1915.

Before leaving Honolulu he was employed by Benson, Smith & Company, and was held in high esteem by the firm members and by his fellow employees. Previous to his connection with Benson, Smith & Company he had served as purser for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company.

Early last year he left Honolulu, proceeding to Vancouver, where he joined the 47th Canadian Battalion. Third Contingent, trained for some time and volunteered for immediate service, being transferred to the 7th Canadian Battalion, First Contingent. For the past six months he had been on the firing line in France. He was a native of Elgin, Scotland.

'MORE TOURISTS THAN SHIPS CAN HANDLE'-STONE
That there are not now enough ships on the Pacific to handle the demand for first class accommodations to Honolulu and that the tourist trend to Hawaii and the western states will surely increase during the coming spring and summer, are two opinions of Cal E. Stone, recently made passenger traffic manager of the Great Northern Railroad. Though Mr. Stone does not say definitely that the Great Northern will remain on the Honolulu run, he seems to anticipate a big paying business in tourist travel to the islands.

NEW ARTISTS TO ENTERTAIN AT THE YOUNG

On the Great Northern Wednesday morning two new entertainers arrived and they will make their first appearance at the Young Hotel Rathskeller on Saturday during dinner.

One, Miss Portia Newport, has appeared at the Fairmont Hotel and Techna Tavern, San Francisco, and has made the Orpheum Circuit as a singer of high-class ballads.

Miss Louise Lorain, also well known throughout California and other western states, is a singer of popular songs.

A third entertainer, engaged for the Rathskeller, failed to arrive, but will reach Honolulu on the Wilhelmina on Wednesday morning. She is a singer of rag-time songs, and was intended to replace Miss Billie Fisher, who has appeared here for the last four weeks.

The management of the Young Hotel has arranged to retain Miss Fisher until the arrival of the singer who will replace her.

It is expected that many table reservations will be made for Saturday evening, and those who expect to be present at the first appearance of the new talent are requested to secure their tables early.—Adv.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

Annual United States inspection of the National Guard of Hawaii will begin January 18, when Capt. Charles S. Lincoln, U. S. A., senior inspector-instructor, will go to Maui to view the troops there, and on his return from Maui will inspect the first battalion, 1st Infantry, on Oahu. After this he will go to Hawaii and when inspection there is completed will return to Oahu and finish inspection of the 1st Infantry.

It is probable that the 1st battalion here will not be inspected until late in February, or possibly early in March and the other two battalions will not undergo inspection until late in March.

Pleased with the work of one company, to which it gave an armory, the Olua Sugar Co. on Hawaii has donated another armory to Company K. The space for this armory is near Pohna, and a substantial building is to be erected soon.

The new armory for Company K will be 100x150 feet, with a drill floor and company rooms.

Capt. J. S. Fair, U. S. A., construction quartermaster at Castner, will lecture at the Y. M. C. A. this evening on "Supplying the Army in the Field." Capt. Fair has made a study of his subject, having been a student at the army service schools at Fort Leavenworth and was at one time on assignment at the War College at Washington.
